WHO WILL BUILD TO THE COAST?

Combination Which May Say "You Just Watch My Smoke!"

LOS ANGELES VIA UVADA.

Union Pacific Will Control System From Omaha to the Pacific Coast -Community of Interest.

When a railroad man wants to impress someone with the fact that he is likely to do something effective he uses an old but meaningful expression: "You just watch my smoke!"

Of late there has been much talk in Los Angeles about the early construction of a line of railway from that town to this beautiful city on the shores of America's inland sea. Coupled with this taik is a statement that Senator W. A. Clark of Montana had purchased a large block of stock of the Los Angeles Terminal Railway, Gossip upon this matter has now even reached San Francisco, which ever views with discomfort any indications of movements towards making of Los Angeles a rival sea port, and the Chronicle publishes an interview with Chronicle publishes an interview with Mr. Frederick K. Rule, manager of the Los Angeles Terminal Railway, in which that gentleman is quoted as using these words: "We are certainly going to build the Salt Lake line," he said. "We have abundant capital for the purpose and will not be put to the necessity of floating bonds to pay the construction costs. United put to the necessity of hoating bonds to pay the construction costs. United States Senstor W. A. Clark of Montana has become a heavy stockholder in the Terminal, and he, with the other stockholders, will put up all the money necessary to see the undertaking accomplished. I may say that the Los Angeles Terminal, Bullways is cally fulfilling the Terminal Hailway is only fulfilling the plans it has had in view since its organization, which have been delayed until the present time largely on account of the delay in the improvement of San Pedro harbor. None of the old stockholders of the oad have parted with any of their holdings of stock, Senator Clark's interest having been acquired by the purchase of unissued stock remaining in the treasury of the company. The company is capitalized for $3,000,000. Of this is capitalized for $3,000,000. Of this amount Senator Clark owns one-half. Surveyors are at work today surveying a line for the proposed road eastward from Los Angeles. Our first objective point is San Bernardino, a distance of sixty miles. From there the road will be built to Salt Lake. City. We shall not build to any western extension of the Union Pacific or Rio Grande. of the Union Pacific or Rio Grands Western. We shall not stop until we have reached Salt Lake City, where we can connect with all transcontinental lines having termini there. We want the business of all lines that are in Salt Lake or will ever get there, among which latter is the Burlington. Work on the surveys, which are in charge of Henry Hawgood, for many years with the engineering department of the Southern Pacific, will be pushed with all possible speed, and the actual construction work will begin within three

There is a line of railway running from Omaha to Ogden which is includ-ed in a system known as the Union Pa-cific railway. From Ogden to Milford. ah, is another piece of line which is included in a system known as the Ore-gon Short Line railway. From Milford to Uvada, located near the imaginary line dividing the States of Utah and Nevada, is a line of railway, whose construction is very recent, known as the Utah & Pacific. To all practical intents and purposes the first of these systems owns the second one, and the second owns the third; and all three put together form a line that is strung out quite a distance—a good start, anyway—towards the Pacific coast.

Mr. A. W. McCune of this city is the public head and front of the Utah & Pacific, and it is a well known fact that for many years he has been closely consecuted in a business way, with Senator. for many years he has been closely one nected, in a business way, with Senator Clark of Montana. Now, if Mr. Clark has bought into the Los Angeles Terminal it may not be unreasonable to venture the suggestion that any line o or from Los Angeles, which may be ouilt by interests represented in either of these gentlemen, will have for its connection the line or system repre-sented in the other. Besides, the posi-tion of the three lines named is certainly an advantageous one, so far as is concerned the matter of distance to be covered in new construction and also as

Figures Which Show the Extent of Railroading Here. In round numbers there are now about 37,500 locomotives in railway ser-vice in the United States. As to other equipment, the most authentic figures come up to June 30, 1899. The total number of cars of all classes in he service of the railways on June 30, 1892, was 1,375,916, an increase of 49.—

30, 1892, was 1,375,918, an increase of 48,742 being shown in this item. Of the total number, 33,850 are assigned to the passenger service, 1,295,510 to the freight service, and 46,556 to the direct service of the railways. It should be understood, however, that cars owned by private companies and firms used by railways are not included in the returns made to the commission. The report under review contains summaries intended to indicate the density of equipment and the extent to which it is used. It appears that the railways of the United States used on the average 20 locomotives and 734 cars per 109 miles of line; that 62,878 passengers were carried, 1.474,765 passenger-miles implished per passenger locomotive plished, per freight locomotive. All of hese items show an increase when compared with corresponding items for preceding year ending June 30, 1898. There was also a decrease in the numper of passenger cars pere 1,000,000 sengers carried, and a decrease in number of freight cars per 1,000,000 cons of freight carried.

Both locomotives and cars being embraced in the term equipment, served that the total equipment of raffways on June 30, 1899, was 1,412,619. Of this number 808,074 were fitted with train brakes, the increase being 166.812, and 1,137,719 were fitted with automatic ouplers, the increase in this time being Practically all locometives and cars n the passenger service were fitted with train brakes, and of 9,594 locomo-lives assigned to that service 6,128 were fitted with automatic couplers. Nearly all passenger cars were fitted with automatic couplers. With respect to freight equipment, it is noted that nearly all freight locomotives were equipped with train brakes and 45 per cent of them with automatic couplers.
